

DISCLOSURE LETTER¹²³⁴

■, 2025

STRICTLY PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

EQB Inc. (the “Purchaser”)

Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

Re: Share Purchase Agreement involving Loblaws Inc., Gardiner Finance Company GmbH, President’s Choice Services Inc. (collectively, the “Vendors”) and the Purchaser.

This disclosure letter is being furnished to the Purchaser in relation to the share purchase agreement dated as of the date hereof among the Purchaser and the Vendors (the “Share Purchase Agreement”). The sections attached hereto disclose to the Purchaser, in writing, the disclosures, exceptions and exclusions contemplated or permitted by the Share Purchase Agreement. The numbering of the sections attached to this disclosure letter corresponds to the relevant section numbers and paragraph letters in the Share Purchase Agreement. Each representation, warranty and covenant of the Vendors in the Share Purchase Agreement shall be subject to: (a) any exception and disclosure expressly set forth in the sections corresponding to the particular section, subsection, paragraph or subparagraph of the Share Purchase Agreement; (b) any exceptions and disclosures explicitly cross-referenced in such section, subsection, paragraph or subparagraph or schedule of this disclosure letter in writing; and (c) any exceptions and disclosures set forth in any other section of this disclosure letter in writing to which the relevance of such written information is reasonably apparent on its face.

This disclosure letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Share Purchase Agreement, and is not intended to constitute, and shall not be construed as constituting, representations or warranties of the Vendors, and does not constitute or imply and will not be construed as a qualification or broadening of the scope of any of the representations and warranties set out in the Share Purchase Agreement, except as and to the extent provided in the Share Purchase Agreement.

Items and information disclosed herein in response to provisions in the Share Purchase Agreement that are qualified by “materiality” and “Material Adverse Change” and similar qualifications are not necessarily material. The mere inclusion of an item in this disclosure letter

¹ Note to Vendors: All disclosure remains subject to ongoing review by EQB and its advisors in all respects.

² Note to Vendors: The Disclosure Letter remains subject to ongoing due diligence by EQB in all respects.

⁴ Note to Vendors: The disclosures in the schedules are aligned with the Vendors’ draft SPA, dated November 26, 2025 (“Vendors’ Draft SPA”).

(including the sections hereto) as an exception to a provision will not be deemed an admission by the Vendors that such item (or any non-disclosed item or information of comparable or greater significance) is required to be disclosed in connection with the representations, warranties or covenants made by the parties in the Share Purchase Agreement or represents a material exception or fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Change in respect of the Vendors.

The information contained in any part of this disclosure letter (including the sections hereto) is provided as of the date of this disclosure letter and is disclosed solely for the purposes of the Share Purchase Agreement and descriptions or terms of agreements and documents herein are summaries only and are qualified in their entirety by the specific terms of such agreements and documents. No reference herein to any agreement or document shall be construed as an admission or indication by any party to the Share Purchase Agreement to any third party of any matter whatsoever, including, without limitation, that such agreement or document is enforceable or currently in effect or that there are any obligations remaining to be performed or any rights that may be exercised under such agreement or document, except as otherwise explicitly set forth in this disclosure letter in writing or the Share Purchase Agreement. No disclosure herein relating to any possible breach or violation of any agreement, law or regulation shall be construed as an admission or indication that any such breach or violation exists or has actually occurred.

The parties acknowledge that this disclosure letter and all information contained in it is confidential and shall be treated in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

For the purposes of this disclosure letter: (i) all capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Share Purchase Agreement, (ii) except as otherwise set out herein, all information and disclosures contained in this disclosure letter are made as of the date of the Share Purchase Agreement, and their accuracy is confirmed only as of that date and not at any time thereafter, (iii) introductory language, headings and subheadings contained in this disclosure letter (including the sections hereto) are for the convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed to modify or influence the interpretation of the Share Purchase Agreement or the information contained herein, (iv) all references to dollars are to Canadian dollars and (v) this disclosure letter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Canada and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This disclosure letter may not be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by written agreement signed by the parties.

This disclosure letter may be executed in any number of counterparts (including counterparts by electronic copies) and all such counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.

SECTION 2.8

Purchase Price Allocation¹⁴

[Note to Blakes: Schedule in progress subject to draft SPA purchase price mechanics.]

Allocation Principles

The allocation of the Purchase Price among the Shares shall be determined based on the fair market value of the Global RE Shares, the PCFI Shares, and the PCB Shares, in accordance with the table below:

Shares	Purchase Price Allocation (CAD)	Description
Global RE Shares	$ [●]	Amount to be determined based on an independent valuation
PCFIA shares	$ [●]	Amount to be determined based on an independent valuation
PCFIB shares	$ [●]	Amount to be determined based on an independent valuation
Total PCFI Shares	$ [●]
PCB Shares	$ [●]	Residual value being the remainder of the Purchase Price after deducting the amounts allocated to the Global RE Shares and PCFI Shares
Purchase Price	$ [●]

The fair market value of the Global RE Shares and PCFI Shares shall be determined by an independent valuator. The Vendors shall appoint the independent valuator, provided that such valuator is a qualified valuation professional with appropriate credentials and experience. The Vendors shall be responsible for all fees and expenses of the independent valuator.

The independent valuator shall apply generally accepted valuation principles and use methodologies appropriate in the circumstances, which may include, without limitation, income-based, market-based, or asset-based approaches, or a combination thereof, as deemed suitable.

The Vendors shall provide the independent valuator with all information necessary to perform the valuation, which may include, without limitation, access to relevant financial statements, financial projections, and other supporting documentation. The Vendors shall also facilitate discussions between the independent valuator and members of management or other individuals who are knowledgeable about the operations, financial performance, and prospects of Global RE, PCFIA and PCFIB.

Any adjustments to the Purchase Price pursuant to Section 2.7 of this Agreement shall be allocated among the PCB Shares, Global RE Shares, and PCFI Shares in a manner consistent with the Allocation Principles set forth in this schedule.

⁵³ Note to Vendors: Please provide the quantum of liability.

⁵⁴ Note to Vendors: We understand from the publicly available statement of claim that the Mélissa Pilon v PC Bank class action is related to the defendants unilaterally amending credit card contracts to authorize credit card operations above the credit limit provided for in the contracts, without the credit cardholder's consent. We understand that the motion to certify this class action was rejected and leave for appeal at the Quebec Court of Appeal and Supreme Court of Canada were rejected (see Mélissa Pilon v. Amex Bank of Canada, et al., 2022 CanLII 16713).

⁵⁵ Note to Vendors: As described immediately above, our understanding is that the Mélissa Pilon v PC Bank class action was not certified (and therefore, not settled). While PC Bank's position is that NK is not eligible to file an unjust dismissal complaint as she a "Manager", NK has taken the position that they were not a "Manager" within the meaning of the Canada Labour Code and is therefore not excluded from filing a complaint. PC Bank maintains that NK was a "Manager" and is therefore prohibited from filing their complaint. The complaint has been referred to a hearing before the Canada Industrial Relations Board and a hearing is scheduled from February 24-27, 2026 on the preliminary issue as to whether or not they are a "Manager".⁵⁸

Action During Interim Period⁸¹

(1) Operate in Ordinary Course

The Acquired Entities will look to extend the maturity of their Series A, Series B-1, and Series C co-ownership agreements by 1-year, per its standard schedule. Series A extension is expected in Q1 2026, Series B-1 extension is anticipated in Q3 2026, and Series C extension is anticipated in Q4 2026. The Acquired Entities may also sell additional co-ownership interests and/or declare accumulation commencements for Series A, Series B-1, and Series C, as required, to meet its funding needs per normal course of business and, if required, its contingency funding needs.

The Acquired Entities may look to issue additional Eagle Note Series in 2026, as it does each year, to meet its funding needs and, if required, its contingency funding needs. Similarly, ~~the Acquired Entities~~ PCB will ~~look~~ continue to originate ~~Broker~~ GICs per normal course of business and, if required, to meet its contingency funding needs.

The Acquired Entities may draw on its Revolving Grid Debt Note, if required to meet contingency funding needs, as well as pay back such balances.⁸²

The Acquired Entities will continue to follow its Capital Policy to pay its regular quarterly dividends, as set out in the 2026 ALM plan, as well as, if approved by the board, additional special dividends that could reduce excess capital while meeting all capital adequacy requirements and limits.

⁸¹ Note to Vendors: Please specify which Acquired Entity will be taking these actions during the interim period.

⁸² Note to Vendors: Please provide a copy of the Revolving Grid Debt Note for our review. Please add also a description of parties and date to the Revolving Grid Debt Note.
